evening, July 22. A magnificent and toothbirthday cake, sent him by his grandmother in Virginia, and surrounded by the traditional twenty-one candles was the place de resistance of a bountifully spread table; beside which Mr. Agnew stood to receive the congratulations of many friends. Flowers also lent their own special charm to the occasion, and many other souvenirs of the happy day were showered upon the surprised recipient.

The affair was planned and successfully carried out by his mother, Mrs. M. O. Mr. Agnew is a student in the George-town Law School, from which institution he expects to graduate next year, and, subsequently, to commence practice in the new state of Oklahoma. Among those invited were: Mrs. and Among those invited were: Mrs. and Miss Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Miss Ethelbert Shaifer, Miss Adelaide Hughes, Mrs. M. R. Fuller, Mr. W. C. Van Emon, Miss Mary Powell, Miss Edna Han-vey, Miss Bertha Camp, Mr. Arthur Pennell, Mr. H. S. Foreman, Mr. Jose Caul-deron, Miss Ada Braddock, Capt. De Coster, Mrs. Woodman and Miss Rea Woodman, the writer; Miss Nellie Graham.

Miss Mabel Kaufman of New York city, who has been spending two months at Far Rockaway, L. I., arrived in Washington on Tuesday and will be the guest of her uncle, Mr D. J. Kaufman, and family in Ken-sington, Md., for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. A. Sigmund and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Kaufman are summering at the Hyatt Mansion, Hyattsville, Md. Mr. Goldie Sigmund has just returned from a trip to Atlantic City and New York, and Mrs. Jeanette Stern has returned to her home on 6th street from a stay of several weeks at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Jo-seph Stern and son, Mr. Sol Stern, who have been the guests of Mrs. Stern, have returned to their home in St. Francisville,

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wernberg are spending a month in New York city and Coney Island.

Miss Jennie Sanger of 1710 U street has left town to visit in the west, Cincinnati and Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pack of the Portsmouth have as their guest Miss Clara Greller of Philadelphia.

Miss Della Fishel, Miss Millie Morris and Miss Belle Morris returned to town on Monday after a delightful stay of two weeks at St. George's Island, on the Poto-mac. While there they were joined by Miss Rose Wheatfield, Mrs. Albert Liss-berger and Miss Hortense Morris.

Rabbi Abram Simon and children have left Lake View Farm, where they had been spending two months, and are staying in town temporarily until the return of Mrs. Simon from Chicago, when they expect to leave town for one of the resorts.

Mr. Harold Levi, accompanied by friends left the city the first of the week for At-lantic City, and is registered at the Pierre-

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frankel of New York city joined some of the Washington colony at the Hotel Dennis, Atlantic City, for a short stay during the week.

Mrs. Louis Newmyer is in Atlantic City to spend several weeks

The Misses Jeanette and Flora Ganss left town this week for Baltimore, where they spent a few days, and with a party of friends proceeded to Pen-Mar, where they will remain two weeks at the Edge-Wood

Miss Laura Behrend of 1411 Rhode Island avenue is entertaining Miss Miriam Ash of Mrs. Albert Sigmund, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Edgar Kaufman, leaves town tomorrow for Pen-Mar to join their mother, Mrs. Charles Kaufman, at the Blue Mountain House

Mr. David Posner is back in town from Atlantic City and is staying at the Cairo.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Behrend celebrated their wedding anniversary last week at Ashdale, Falls Church, Va., where they are spending the summer. Mrs. Behrend en-tertained a party at whist in the afternoon and dainty refreshments were served. The prize was won by Mrs. I. B. Nordlinger. Those in the party were Mrs. Meyer Nord-linger, Mrs. A. M. Baer, Mrs. Henry J. Goodman, Mrs. Sigmund Kaufman, Mrs. B. Nordlinger, Mrs. Rudolph Behrend, Mrs. I. B. Nordlinger, Mrs. Fellows and Mrs. Isaac

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Selinger are spending two weeks at Atlantic City.

Mr. Morris Hahn and Mr. Gilbert Hahr have been spending the week at Colonial

Mrs. L. J. Kaufman of 8th street south east is spending several weeks at the Sum-mit Park Hotel, Gaithersburg, Md.

Mr. Carl Kaufman of New York city, for merly of this city, was the guest for a short stay of Mr. D. J. Kaufman in Ken-sington, Md. He returned to his home on

Mr. Louis Spanier, who is spending some time at Bedford Springs, Pa., will be joined by his daughter, Mrs. Meyer Loeb, and children, who will remain for several weeks, and during the summer will go to Atlantic City for an indefinite stay.

Miss Meryl Goldsmith of Alexandria, Va. the guest of the Misses Sommers of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Heller of St. Louis Mo., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Reizenstein for the past ten days, have left the city.

Mr. Salm Behrend of New York, formerly of this city, spent a few days in town with Miss Flora Bernheimer and her guest, Miss Marie Marcus of Tallahassee, Fla., were at home on Tuesday evening to a large gathering of their friends. In honor of the members of the Phoenix Club the house was tastefully decorated in the club's colors, brown and white. The lawn was attractively lighted by Japanese lanterns and during the evening the guests were ushered in the dining room, where a sup-per was served. Music and dancing were

Mr. Meyer Cohen has returned to the city after seeing his family settled for the summer near Cape Cod, Mass avenue, with their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers of Memphis, Tenn., were at home their friends on Tuesday evening from

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Auerbach of L street have returned to the city from a several weeks' visit in New York. Mrs. Louis Sonneborn and daughter are at Cascade, Md., for the remainder of the

The Misses Mildred and Irene Jacobs are spending four weeks at Colonial Beach.

Miss Fanita Hyman, formerly of San Francisco, has joined her parents in New York after a two months' visit in town with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Her-

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin K. Leon, the lat ter formerly Miss Lavina Goldsmith, who were just recently married, have returned to the city from their honeymoon spent in Atlantic City and will be pleased to see heir friends at 429 R street northwest.

Miss Violet Lovinger, who has been the guest of Miss Hopfenmaier, has returned are back in town after spending three weeks at Atlantic City. Mrs. M. Cohen has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Katz of Baltimore.

Mrs. Lee Kerngood of Baltimore is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. A. Herman of Calvert street.

Mr. Louis Lowenthal is spending the summer at Bluemont, Va. Miss Florence Gusdorf and her cousin, Miss Dora Garner of Newport News, who is her house guest, were at home to their many friends on Wednesday evening at 1520 7th street. A very pleasant evening was spent and light refreshments were

Mr. Louis Koenigsberg has returned to

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Auerbach returned to their home on 6th street during the week from a two weeks' visit at Ocean City, N. J., after a delightful trip to their son, Capt. Malcolm Auerbach, who is in com-mand of the High School Cadets. While there Mrs. Auerbach was one of the pa-tronesses of the two hops given by the tronesses of the two hops given by Mrs. B. Hechinger, 614 M street north-west, has as her guest her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Stein of Marshall, Tex. Mrs. Hech-inger and Mrs. Stein will be at home this and Mrs. Rudolph Behrend of Columbia Heights left town on Friday for Atlantic City to spend a couple of weeks, Mrs. Lewis Hopfenmaier, Miss Helen Hopfenmaier and Mrs. Louis Simon and son are in Atlantic City, staying at the

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Stern have as their guests their daughter, Mrs. Jerome Franc and son, Henry Franc, jr., of New York

Mrs. L. Steiner and Miss Ella Steiner of L street are among the many Washing-tonians staying at Atlantice City.

Mr. Frank Grant and Master Everett Lacy Hester of 14 Quincy place are visit-ing Misses Garner Wyville, Baden, Md.,

Messrs. E. E. Bloom and W. R. Warman, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank T. Howe, have returned to their ome in New York.

Miss Anna M. Johnson and Miss Marie A. Turner of this city left yesterday after-noon for Atlantic City.

Misses Lizzie and Kathleen Vincent of New York. who have been spending their vacation in this city with their aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Strain, of 243 10th street southeast, will leave for home today. The young ladies expect to visit this city again in the near future.

THE STORES

LANSBURGH & BRO. announce that there are but two days more of their July clean-up sale. This sale represents bargains in every department of the store. The house advertises its silks at "giving away prices," and it needs but a glance at the many handsome weaves and their cost to see that this is true. Waists, skirts and underwear, all fresh enough for immediate use, are reduced to less than half their former prices, and the counters are heaped with colored wash goods, nainsooks, lawns, pongees, organdles, linen and all the fresh and light-weight fabrics that a woman can make at home into beautiful dresses, waists, etc., for almost as little as the traditional

THE PALAIS ROYAL will display this week a collection of antique jewelry which the house claims, surpasses the exhibits of any one museum of Europe. These reproductions represent the jewelry of every age and people; authenticated copies of necklaces worn by Assyrian rulers nearly a thousand years before the Christian era, designs of the goldsmith's art of ancient empty. The apartments beneath are also unoccupied, and thus, by being at the top of a high house, surrounded by empty spaces, she finds, at great expense, the quiet which is necessary to her nerves. Of course, according to rule, this particular woman should be a ravishing beauty, since as much of our locks depends upon bottles and belt buckles; Arazzi miniature bracelets, Florentine carved coral pins; Raffaele vanity boxes, Dresden and Limoge belt buckles, Armenian amulets, Moslem rosary chains, etc.

S. KANN. SONS & CO.'S clearing sales for the past two weeks or more have clearly proved the confidence Washington people have in this firm's announcement of bargains.

Though many excellent bargains "have been," by reading today's advertisement, tomorrow's shoppers will find that many, 'still are.'

Having the semi-annual inventory in mind the suit department has made some sweeping reductions on nearly every garment in stock. Nine or ten splendid suit offerings, bathing suits at about half price, summer dress bargains, skirt and coat bargains. Eigh-teen different lots in all. "Snaps" in white goods are offered,

"sraps" because they are in limited quantities only and will be snapped up early in the day A pretty woven striped tissue zephyr, secured from a jobber at half or less than his usual selling price, furnishes another good item in tomorrow's list, also some pretty black lawn plaids, and other style Lingerie hats, which have been and still are so much the rage this summer, as well as trimmed hats, untrimmed shapes and the most useful little duck outing hats, are all included in the big price cutting. Mohairs in colors, white and black, have come down in price for Monday's selling, and a cut price line of dress trimmings are advertised tomorrow also.

Underwear, hosiery, jewelry and notions present some very good Monday specials.

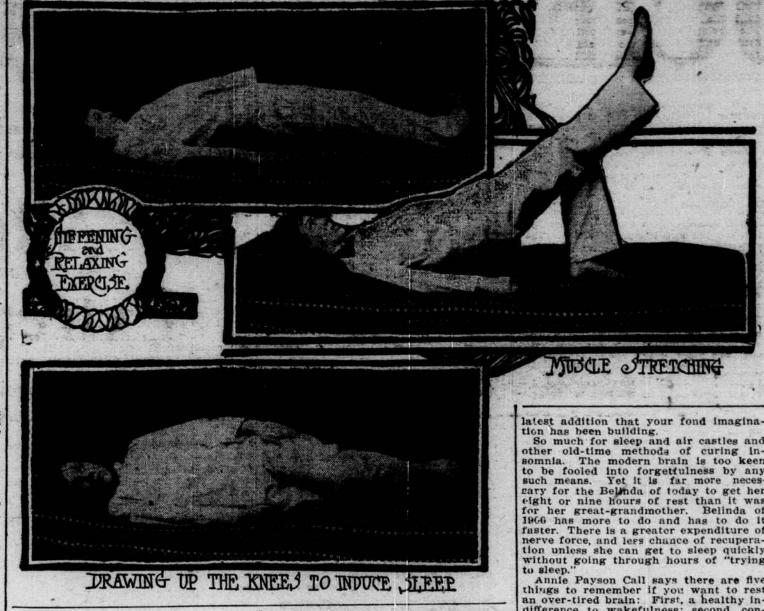

PHILIPSBORN is busy with preparations for the fall season, and the summer stock left over from "inventory day" has been marked at low prices for quick clearance. This after-inventory sale includes women's and misses' suits, taffeta tailored, serge linen, both plain and lace trimmed. There is an attractive showing of tub skirts and lingerie waists, and many handsome models of long rain and taffeta coats, etons and black and covert jackets.

HUB FURNITURE COMPANY announce es that while its rebuilding sale is on furniture will be sacrificed at half and less than half of usual prices. Rebuilding requires room and this store is making room by offering fine stock at a fraction of origi-nal cost. The bargains of the week include the 1906 washing machine, metal beds, dressers, bed room and parlor suits and sewing machines which may be had by making a small deposit and paying smaller sums weekly.

MAYER & CO. invite the public to test the merits of their easy-payment system and announce that no extra charges what-ever will be made. Goods may be charged and payments made later. In the way of warm-weather bargains the store will feature this week the Bowen refrigerator and the "Perfect" gas range. A drip pan is given with the former and pipe connec-tions with the latter. The week's specials will include an attractive line of matting and matting rugs, all laid free of charge PETTIT & CO. have "cut in half" the price of any woman's suit in their house. These garments are correct in cut and stylish in finish, and were desirable at the original price. The reduction, therefore, appeals to those women who are compelled

A week from Monday the New York Yacht Club is due on its annual cruise, the R. W. DEVREAUX CO. are including among their pre-inventory bargains a small lot of long black silk gloves now so rare and in such universal demand. Other bar-or of some dark color which will deaden the THE GIRL YOU that the city maiden after her eighteenth year invariably loses. The reason for this is that city girls hardly ever get a sufficient amount of sleep, or if they take enough hours of sleep, their rest is not a quiet, deep slumber which country air and the absence of all sound invites.

Written for The Star by Katherine Morton.

Sleep in the city at best is a troubled unconsciousness, with a sort of under-current of irritation against the noise and buzz which never stops by night or by day. A very sensitive person coming to the city for the first time in her life is seldom able to sleep at all for the first right or two, and no city-bred girl, on awakening in the country after a night's rest, will fail to exclaim on the delicious, refreshing sleep that the quiet has in-

It is useless to expect this silence in the city, and I know of only one woman, living in the heart of the city, who has been able to afford absolute quiet. This woman has had a house built especially for the purpose. Her sleeping room is in the center of the house, lighted by a kylight, and the rooms about her are since so much of our looks depends upon the amount of sleep we get and upon the amount of sleep we get and upon the perfect rest we obtain while sleep-ing. When there is constant noise this rest is imperfect and sleep is troubled, but the woman who lives in the empty house has only the one requisite for beauty, the possibility for perfect rest, which we may envy her, but which, as we know, is not all that is necessary to cultivate and improve upon the beauty

Every woman with any aspirations toward which nature has allotted us.

light.

Don't sleep with a strong light on your eyes. This will give the eyes that tired look and will eventually injure them. WOULD LIKE TO BE Be careful in the choice of your bed.
Don't sacrifice comfort to looks in this respect. Don't take a rickety divan with an uncomfortable mattress to sleep on just TAVE you ever observed the difbecause you want to have an artistic-looking couch in the daytime. These couches are almost always lop-sided unless of exceptionally good make, and the sleeper on ference in the face of the country girl and the girl who lives in the city? Of course, the them is never comfortable.

If your bed and sitting room is one and country maiden is supposed to have the rosy cheeks and fair complex-ion of the postal card milkmaid, but in reality she is often sunburnt and freekthe same apartment, and you do not wish your bed to appear for what it is, get a regular bedstead with four solid metal legs, good springs and a good mattress. To cover led, and it is the city maiden whose skin is fair and white, with touches of deliit in the daytime, get cretonne or some other goods which will harmonize with your cate rose, due either to kindly nature or the rouge pot. But no matter how large her freckles may be, the country girl has about her a look of restfulness other furniture, make a covering exactly the size of the bed, enveloping the head and the foot with fitted pieces of the material. This will make the bed look like a big setthe during the daytime.

Be sure that your bed clothes are thoroughly aired and your night gown as well, and if for some reason the bed must be made up at once after getting up in the morning, put the outer covering over it, having removed the sheets to give them a chance to air at the windows. Fold them up during the daytime to be replaced at night in the regular way. wight in the regular way.

When the novelist of a hundred years ago, wished to depict in the most startling colors, the mental anguish of his persecuted heroine, he informed the gentle reader that "The fair Belinda had passed a sleepless night." His ideas of suffering went that the Politics of today have inno further. The Belindas of today have insomnia on the slightest provocation as result of the strenuous age in which they are living, and many are the cures to which the fair ones are resorting. The very latest cure for sleeplessnes physician who came to the conclusion that most of the cases of insomnia were caused by over-fatigue or over-excitement of the nerves. To counteract this the doctor believes in a series of muscular exercises were need to release the contract of the contract were needed. lar exercises warranted to relax the tension of the nerves, and bring about that delightfully drowsy sensation, the immediate forerunner of refreshing sleep. If you are one of the many sufferers from sleeplessness, or one of those whose sleep seems never to be the refreshing, restoring kind that childhood knew, try some of these ways of procuring real brain and body rest. Nothing is as nec-essary, even the health food enthusiast admits that, and no cure is complete un-less the patient at night sinks into real tefreshing slumber without having to fret or toss about for hours and count those dreadful sheep that are supposed to precede the coming of the sand man latest addition that your fond imagination has been building.

So much for sleep and air castles and other old-time methods of curing insomnia. The modern brain is too keen to be fooled into forgetfulness by any such means. Yet it is far more necessary for the Belinda of today to get her eight or nine hours of rest than it was for her great-grandmother. Belinda of 1966 has more to do and has to do it faster. There is a greater expenditure of faster. There is a greater expenditure of nerve force, and less chance of recupera-tion unless she can get to sleep quickly without going through hours of "trying to sleep."

Annie Payson Call says there are five things to remember if you want to rest an over-tired brain: First, a healthy indifference to wakefulness; second, concentration of mind on simple things; third, relaxation of the body; fourth, gentle rhythmic breathing of fresh air; fifth, regular nourishment. That really covers it all it all.

When Belinda comes home, feeling "too tired to sleep," there is no use in her trying to go to bed at once. Let her take a warm bath, letting the cold water run in until the water becomes cool, then let her go through the many differ-ent points of the toilet, manicuring and hair dressing, for instance, so often done help to quiet and relax the nerves and can be allowed to take up an hour of time. Last of all, a cup of warm milk with a pinch of salt and a whiff of pepper.

Many people, and this applies particularly to men, suffer from sleeplessness because they are not properly nourished. Exhausted or irritated and excited nerves need nourishing. A bite of light and easily digested food will not keep one awake-on the con-trary it is often just what is needed to induce sleep. Sleep will not come to the brain that is worrying, or even busy with the thoughts of "How shall I make myself fall asleep?" Here is where our western doctor comes to the rescue for his muscular exercises. Take the mind off the desired outcome and center it on directing the bodily evements which the doctor advises, inducing bodily fatigue by tiring the muscles. It sounds as if it would take forever, but it doesn't. Just try it. The first time you feel as though you would never be able to sleep, just stretch yourself out while in bed, throwing your arms above your head, and tense the muscles and stretch to their ut-Stiffen the leg and arm muscles, and feel as much as possible as when you stretch in the morning. Relax completely and try again. Stretch the limbs in different directions. For instance: put your arm out in front, and you will soon find yourself vawning comfortably, and you won't probably need to go through any more exercises, being now quite too sleepy to do so, but the other movements are equally good. Lie on your side and pull your knees up. Inhale freely while doing this. While the breath is retained stiffen and stretch the muscles, neck, arms and back; exhale at the same time. It is usually the neck that is so stiff and rigid that nervous people feel as though they were holding their heads on by main force. These stretching exercises will soon teach one how to relax one's hold on one's own tense muscles, which is the very first thing to learn in curing insomnia.

Another excellent way of producing drow-siness is by rhythmic breathing. For in-stance, inhale and contract all the muscles while counting seven, hold the breath and muscular tension, count seven to exhale and rest seven counts. A good exercise for stretching the muscles of the leg, and which will also induce growth, is to lie flat Every woman with any aspirations toward good looks should exercise the utmost care in the choice of her sleeping apartment.

Don't, if you want to be healthy and handsome, sleep in an airshaft bed room, devoid of light and proper ventilation.

Never sleep with the windows closed.

Don't have too many rugs in your bed room or too much dust-collecting bric-abrac around.

Have your open window protected by a green shade or curtains of green material

AT ALEXANDRIA BAY.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 27, 1906. A more delightful week for campers and cottagers than the one which is about over could scarcely be imagined or desired. While the sun has been in evidence every day, the cooling winds of the northland have made the veins tingle with energy and life during the day hours and have soothed the weary ones when night threw her mantle over river and Island and shore. Weary ones? The "seeker for rest" in the great St. Lawrence river region does more hard stunts every day that he or she is here than do the laborers who rise with the lark and plug away until nightfall in the hay fields for their $2.50 of the coin of the realm. But it is all in the summer's outing, and there can be little doubt but that the Thousand Island kind of rest cure-boating, fishing, swimming, camping, eating, sleeping and singing-is good for the system that during most of the year is a part and parcel of the rattle and roar and the dust and din of the big cities.

By every token, the most interesting visftor of the past week was the widow of President McKinley, who made brief calls and stops at several places along the river while on her way in the private launch of Cleveland friends to Valleyfield, whence she went to her little summer cottage in the Adirondacks. It was not known in advance that Mrs. McKinley was coming this way, else it would have been impossible for her to have escaped some kind of a public ovation at Cape Vincent, Alexandria Bay, Clayton and other places. As it was, marks of respect were everywhere shown the wife of the martyred President, and crowds of summer people gathered at many points to salute silently the quiet and beautiful lady who was once the first woman of the land. At Alexandria Bay and Clayton many of the private launches were hastily decorated in her honor, and for many miles down the great river launch conveying her was followed at a respectful distance by a large flotilla of water craft. Count Bheulen von Bismarck of the famous "iron chancellor family" of Germany, who has been with us for some time, left for New York and the south this week. The count spent a very happy time here, and now intends to take in the Jersey resorts as well as places in Maryland and Virginia. He expects to stop a week or so at Colonial Beach, Va., visit Newport News and Old Point Comfort and then hie himself away to Atlanta and the further south. Admiral Converse, chief of the bureau of construction, United States navy, is one of those expected to take up a brief period of St. Lawrence river cottage life, begin-ning with next week. The admiral will be accompanied by his family and one or two navy friends, and will locate near Clayton. Rev. Dr. Henry Edward Marsden, formerly of Washington, now of St. Louis, arrived last week and joined the cottage colony. In a sermon preached by him last Sunday in one of the local churches he paid a beautiful tribute to the late Lady Curzon, whom, he said, he formerly knew as a girl in her western home. Dr. Marsden cabled his condolences to Lord Curzon.

The arrivals during the week from Washington and other points south have far exceeded in number any other week in the resort history of the Thousand Islands.
Washington arrivals at different points along the river during the week ending to day are as follows:

At Cape Vincent-Dr. Homer Evans and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Clark, Miss Cynthia Clark and Dr. John Lincoln, At Alexandria Bay-Lieut, William E. Roberts, Lieut. Bane, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hillfest, Miss Hillfest, Miss Lillian Gor-don, Miss Marguerite Gordon, Miss Jennette Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. I. Cohen, Miss Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, John T. Smith, William Barrmann and Mrs. Charles Barrmann.

At Redwood—Capt, and Mrs. Nathaniel Gates and daughters, Minnie and Gladys. At Clayton-Miss Margaret O'Donnell, Miss Florence M. O'Donnell, Miss Grace Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pierson, Henry T. D. Murphy, Mrs. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Keiser, Miss K. Keiser, Miss Weirtheimre, Mr. and Mrs. Rubenstein, Miss Rachael Rubenstein, Miss Gussie Goldman, Rev. Jackson Helmes, Mrs. Helmes, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kelly and Miss Mary Kelly. At Gananoque—John J. Holman. At Rockport—Mr. and Mrs. Charles D.

Wilson and Miss Dayse Wilson.

A party of twenty or more from Norfolk are at Clayton in camp, after a two weeks' stay at Cliff Haven, Lake Champlain. Some of the party are Mr. and Mrs. Holman Wells, Miss Catherine V. Wells, Miss Jen-nie McDermott, John Victor, Henry T. E. Mason, Miss Sara Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Brien, Miss Cecilia O'Brien, Miss Kathryn Jackson, Miss Virginia Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Nolan and son.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayes of Norfolk are cottage arrivals at Cape Vincent. The Misses Tessie and Veronica Black of Richmond are comers of the past few days at Gananoque, where they are domiciled at the Canadian House. The Misses Black spent the earlier days of July at Cape May and Atlantic City.

Rev. and Mrs. Amos Tupper of Georgetown, D. C., are arrivals of the week at the Dyer Hotel, Redwood, accompanied by their daughters, Miss Elizabeth F. and Mrs. Noles Breckenridge, the latter of Lookout Mountain, Term. Miss Georgie Knowlton of Washington and Miss Vera Train of New York have as and Miss Vera Train of New York have as guests in their Cape Vincent cottage a number of fellow-students from Bryn Mawr-Miss Genevieve Hoyt Haskell of Brooklyn, Miss Eva Stephens and Miss Tannie Stephens of Los Angeles, Miss Fine of Baltimore and the Misses Lennie and Grace Smith of Annapolis.

Dr. Claud Hughes of Philadelphia is occupying his Butterfield Lake cottage with a number of his college friends, among whom are Dr. Linrol Johnson of Washington and Dr. Rafael Zamosta of Havana, Cuba, and Johns Hopkins, Baltimore.

Miss Patricia Carroll of Cambridge, Md.

Miss Patricia Carroll of Cambridge, Md., direct descendent of Charles Carroll of Carrollton and one of the most fascinating young ladies now at Alexandria Bay, is this week the guest of the Baron and Lady Fitzgerald of County Wicklow, Ireland, on the Canadian side of the river.

George Bacheller of Alexandria, Va., has engaged accommodations for himself, wife and daughter at the Dyer Hotel, Redwood, for the remainder of the season. Mr. Bacheller is a man of wealth and thinks seriously of purchasing Green Island, in Butter-field lake, and erecting a hotel upon it. Col. Hugh Blackwell Burke of the British war office, who, with Mrs. Burke, is entertaining Baron and Baroness Wishy of Nor-way at their cottage on the Canadian side of the river, is expecting to have as a guest soon Henrick Cavling, the noted journalist and author of Denmark, who edits the Politicken, the leading paper of that kingdom, at Copenhagen. Mr. Cavling is now on his way across the Atlantic to land at Montreal.

Among today's arrivals at Alexandria Bay are the following Maryland people: Gorman J. Keith and Miss Keith of Howard, Mrs. Emily Hirsch and family of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Bird Nelson of Annapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Clark of Culpeper, Va., are late arrivals at the Bay View House, Bay View. Among the expected arrivals at the Thou-sand Island House, Alexandria Bay, are Profs. Lyle and Mason of the law depart-ment, University of Virginia. Washington arrivals of today include Spencer G. Prime of the State Department, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lindsey and Miss Lindsey and Horace Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Wescott of George town left on today's river steamer for a trip to Lake Titus, in the Adirondacks, and Point Marquette, on Lake Champlain.

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR

Special Correspondence of The Star. GREENBRIER SPRINGS, W. Va.,

July 28, 1906. White Sulphur was never more charming and company delightful. The season promises to be most enjoyable. Both young and old enter into the gayeties of the springs. Representative people from Washington, Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Virginia and southern cities, including many distinguished foreigners, are vsiting

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the past week was a large progressive card party on Monday morning. The game of six tables was skillfully played in the spacious drawing room of the hotel.

The first prize was an oriental silk shawl, won by Mrs. R. C. Brickell of Huntsville, Second prize, a dainty pack of cards handsome leather case, won by Mr. L. M. Sweet of Washington, D. C. The third prize, a bon-bon dish, was won by Mrs. George Brown. Fredinand Chatard of Baltimore gave a charming seven-hand euchre party Mrs. T. J. Semmes of New Orleans enter ained most agreeably a delightful card party at seven-hand euchre which came off Wednesday evening. There were two tables and delicious bon-bons were arranged at each place. The first prize was given to Mrs. Ferdinand Chatard, a handmely ornamented dinner gong. To Miss Afina Campbell, a white sulphur souvenir silver spoon. To Miss Priscilla Ward, a silver pen, and to Miss Julia

Ward, a match safe of burnt wood.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley are guests from Washington, D. C. Mrs. Ritchie Stone, accompanied by her retty daughter, Miss Lillian Stone

Master King Stone, recently arrived from Washington. Mrs. Clement Clay Clayton of Huntsville Ala., the authoress of "A Belle of the Fifties," is always the center of an admiring circle of friends.

AMONG THE CLUBS.

The W. M. B. Club met Wednesday for the last time this season. Miss Jessle Miller, president, resigned because of illness, and her place was given to Mr. Jack Monroe until the election of officers in the fail.

Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey is being entertained very generally by the c'ub women of Boston, where she is visiting en route

The Laurels held their monthly meeting Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Leman, 103 4th street southeast. The committee in charge reported that a satisfactory sum had been realized from the recent excursion given by the club, and dates were selected for the dances of the coming season, all of which will be held at Naval Lodge Hall. After business had been disposed of refreshments were served.

AT NEWPORT, R. I.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 28, 1906.

Mrs. Oliver Hazard Perry Belmont was never more conspicuously in the limelight than just now, which is saying a great deal. More than a dozen years ago, when she was Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, she gave a ball at Marble House that has never been equaled here, and the affair is as fresh in memory as if it had been held last season. An idea of its magnificence can be gained by the fact that the favors-peacock tail feather fans-cost thirty odd dollars each. It was declared at that time that the hostess' social supremacy could never be impaired, but time works wonders. Last year, because the Belmonts did not like the attitude of the city fathers toward their request for a road near their estate, Belcourt was not opened. The former Mrs. Vanderbilt has determined to reassert herself. The result is a series of large dinners and musicales at Belcourt already begun, and a well-defined project for a great ball at Marble House late next month, if all goes well. Mrs. Belmont's fine hand is also seen in the new bridge whist club for women, which it is said will not prove exclusively a women's affair after all.

With August almost at hand the social calendar is taking form. The first big affair of the year is due this afternoon at the Casino, when a Venetian fete will be given for local charity, with society folk as participants as well as patrons.

The North Atlantic squadron is due next Monday, and on Friday will be heid the benefit for a Catholic orphanage at Reginald Vanderbilt's farm in the suburbs. It is expected to be the most elaborate affair for sweet charity this year. The tuberculosis camp, which has had bumper benefits for two years, will be aided by private subscriptions.

Astor and King's cup races to follow on the next two days. Then what with polo, tennis and the fox hunts to follow it will worthy affairs and Mrs. William G. Roelker for a lively barn dance at Hawkhurst. The Casino corporation is to make a deermined effort to retain the horse show after this year, for it needs the money. Jamestown, owing to the prevalence of fog, has had another quiet week The chief activity has been at the golf club, where a long schedule of events is on, along with

There is a craze here among the young men for motor cycles, which are becoming almost as great a nuisance as automobile along Narragansett avenue and near the ferry wharf. A few arrests are threatened. The noise made by the pins at the bowling club and the racket caused by other social organizations was the basis of a complaint this week to the town fathers. There has been similar trouble before. An investigating committee has been appointed with power.

Another rumpus is that between Joseph Wharton, the Philadelphia millionaire, and the United States, which reached the courts Thursday. The government took down one of Wharton's fences to reach the Beaver Tail lighthouse. Wharton denies the right of Uncle Sam so to do.

As soon as Bay View drive is extended a bathing pavilian is projected at Potter's

With the new transportation facilities it is now possible to check baggage here direct for the first time. Miss Edith Wetmore of Washington is to be at the booths of the charity bazaars at the Casino and Sandy Point farm. Mrs. Reginald De Koven of Washington was among the dinner givers last week.

M. Henri des Portes of the French embassy at Washington has leased the Dring Cottage on Dresser street.

Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore of Washington is expected here from that city al-Granville R. Fortescue of Washington is registered at the Casino.

James H. Kidder of Boston is visiting the Reginald De Kovens of Washington, as is A. D. Irving of New York.

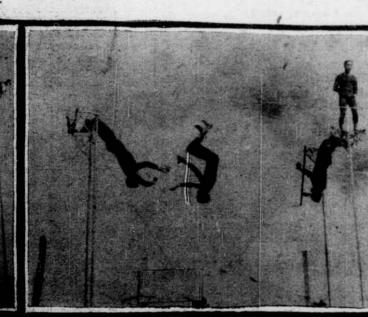

Miss Maude Wetmore of Washington is taking a hand in the revival of goif.

Capt. F. E. C. Ryan of the British navy, and naval attache of the British embassy at Washington, has just been looking over the naval training station here.

Roger K. Wetmore of Washington is reg-

SNAPSHOTS OF ACROBATIC PERFORMANCE.

TT has been declared by those considered competent to judge that Washington contains more amateur photographers than any other city in the country. One amateurs in photography may be obtained from the pictures submitted in The Sun-day Star's prize picture contests which have been held every week since the middle of last November. Miss Violet Levinger, who has been the data returned and in such universal demand of Other barries and in such universal demand of the week are ready-to-wear washing in several weeks as easy-to-wear washing in several weeks as easy-to-wear washing in several weeks are striped home of the first part of the week are ready-to-wear washing in several weeks are striped home of the first part of the week are ready-to-wear washing in several weeks are striped home of the first part of the week are ready-to-wear washing in several weeks are striped home of the first part of the week are ready-to-wear washing in several weeks are striped home of the first part of the same of the case of the same of the case of the weeks are striped home of the same of the case of the weeks are striped home of the same of the case of the same of the case of the same of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the first part of the same of the same of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the first part of the same of the same of the first part of the same of the